SOUTHERN INDIANA LAWMAKERS APPOINTED TO SUMMER STUDY COMMITTEES

INDIANAPOLIS – Area lawmakers have been selected to serve on a series of interim study committees for the Indiana General Assembly, according to an announcement today by Indiana House Democrat Leader B. Patrick Bauer (D-South Bend).

"These study committees do much of the background work on the subjects that will form the backbone of the 2007 session of the Legislature," Bauer noted. "In making these selections, I want to take full advantage of the diverse areas of expertise that these fine people bring to the General Assembly. I believe they will use these appointments to advance proposals that will benefit many people across Indiana."

STATE REP. CARLENE BOTTORFF (D-JEFFERSONVILLE) will serve on the Water Resources Study Committee and the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial Commission.

STATE REP. WILLIAM COCHRAN (D-NEW ALBANY) will be a member of the State Budget Committee and the Lewis and Clark Bicentennial Commission.

STATE REP. TERRY GOODIN (D-CROTHERSVILLE) will serve on the Indiana Abraham Lincoln Bicentennial Commission.

STATE REP. DENNIE OXLEY (D-MILLTOWN) will serve on the Interim Study Committee on Government Administration and Regulatory Matters and the Water Resources Study Committee.

STATE REP. PAUL ROBERTSON (D-DEPAUW) will be a member of the Water Resources Study Committee, the ISTEP Program Citizens' Review Committee and the Natural Resources Study Committee.
